Abstract: The European Union had a decisively contribution in develop peace in Europe over the previous six decades. The accelerated process of European integration has produced increased levels of opposition, which have been more prominent since the early 1990s. Opposition has taken various forms and at times halted or delayed attempts to enhance European political unity. Every member state from the EU also faces Euroscepticism from both the citizens and the political parties especially during difficult periods like the Euro crisis in 2008 due to the global market meltdown and recently the migrant crisis caused by the civil war in Syria and the EU-Russia relation, but Euroscepticism started way before this with the political figures who were scared for the national supremacy over the supranational one of the EU.
