Abstract. This article seeks to realize a research of the Russian Federation demographic situation by its tendencies to harmonize the migration processes. The Russian Federation is a diverse, multiethnic society that has been confronted with a lot of problems regarding the demographic situation. According to the internal and external data the Russian Federation has the lack of labor working persons due to the decreasing number at the population level. To assure the positive result it's important to improve the implication of the both parts: one side, the main goal of demographic politics of state needs to be the protection of identity of that segment of the population and an equilibrate naturalization by accommodation in the community States; other side, the migration processes to be in accordance with the internal conditions of the democratic States.

Keywords: demography, migration, minority, communities, birth rates, etc.
